

100 for 100 Project - Informed Consent

The purpose of the 100 for 100 Narratives Project is to build the information base for an eventual written history of the law school. Interviews are the main part of this project. You were asked to participate in this project because you are a person who is associated with the UConn School of Law and has historical perspective.

Interview information

If you participate in this project:

- Your interview will last approximately one hour from start to finish.
- You will be asked questions about your background, your career, and your historical perspective on the UConn School of Law.
- Your interview will be videotaped.
- You may have the satisfaction of knowing that you are helping to preserve the history of the UConn School of Law. You may gain some public recognition for your participation in this project.

Your rights

This project is voluntary. You do not have to answer any questions that you do not wish to answer. You may stop your participation at any time during the interview. Your contact information such as address and telephone number will not be disclosed to the public.

Deposit of materials

You will agree to have the video recording stored at the UConn School of Law Special Collections & Archives. You will have to sign a release form for the UConn School of Law. The video recording will be available for use by researchers and patrons. The materials may also be used for public display or publication by the UConn School of Law Special Collections & Archives.

I, _____, am a participant in the UConn Law School 100 for 100 Narrative Project (hereinafter "project"). I understand that the purpose of the project is to collect audio, video tapes, and selected related documentary materials (such as photographs and manuscripts) that may be deposited in the permanent collections of the UConn Law School Special Collections & Archives. The deposited documentary materials may be used for scholarly, educational, and other purposes. I understand that the UConn Law School plans to retain the product of my participation as part of its permanent collection and that the materials may be used for exhibition, publication, presentation on the World Wide Web and successor technologies, and for promotion of the institution and its activities in any medium.

I hereby grant to the UConn Law School ownership of the physical property delivered to the institution and the right to use the property that is the product of my participation (my interview, photographs, and written materials) as stated above. By giving permission, I understand that I do not give up any copyright that I may hold.

I also grant to the UConn Law School consent for any photograph(s) provided by me or taken of me in the course of my participation in the project to be used, published, and copied by the UConn Law School and its assignees in any medium.

I agree that the UConn Law School may use my name, video or photographic image or likeness, statements, and voice reproduction, or other sound effects without further approval on my part.
